

General Instructions

Application deadline for all students is January 15 for the following academic year. All application items below must be received by LSTC by that date in order to be considered, including GRE, TOEFL, and IELTS test scores.

A completed application includes the following items. Items may be submitted electronically to admissions@lstc.edu or via postal service to LSTC's Admissions Office, 5416 S. Cornell Ave, 4th Fl. Chicago, IL 60615.

- Application for Admission. Save this document to your hard drive and open/complete in Acrobat Reader, not your browser. Mac users should use Adobe Acrobat, not Preview software. Free Adobe Reader software available here: <http://www.adobe.com/products/reader.html>.
- Essay no longer than two pages single-spaced describing:
 1. Your intellectual interests and vocational goals
How does your proposed program of study contribute to your long-range professional and vocational goals?
 2. How your scholarly interests match the academic programs and the faculty strengths at LSTC
Why are you applying for an advanced degree at LSTC?
- References from two or three people, depending on degree program. Download reference forms from www.lstc.edu, complete top portion, and have referent submit completed forms directly to LSTC.
- Writing Sample of no more than twenty pages that is representative of your work in the field in which you are applying. This may be a term paper, published essay, or portion of a larger work. If you choose to excerpt a portion from a larger work, include a one-paragraph abstract of the entire paper as an introduction to the writing sample.
- Official Transcripts sent directly from all post-secondary institutions where you have completed academic work. If you are currently enrolled in the final year of a Masters program, please request a transcript that lists all courses to date and send a final transcript upon completion of your degree. Transcripts written in a language other than English, German, French, Spanish, Portuguese, or Arabic must be accompanied by a notarized translation.
- GRE for US and Canadian students. Contact Educational Testing Services at www.ets.org/gre for test dates and locations. Only scores submitted directly by ETS to LSTC (institutional code 1026-4) will be accepted.
- TOEFL or IELTS for international students whose primary language is not English. The TOEFL or IELTS will be waived if applicants can demonstrate that they have already earned a graduate degree in which the language of instruction was English. For information about test dates and locations, contact Educational Testing Services at www.ets.org/toe3fl or www.ielts.org. Only scores taken less than two years previously and submitted directly by ETS to LSTC (institutional code 1026-4) will be accepted.
- Resume or CV (optional). While not required, including a resume or CV may strengthen your application if it sufficiently presents your qualifications for advanced graduate work, including education, employment, and publications in your field of interest.
- Additional Considerations (optional) written as a summary statement that provides any additional information that you think would be helpful as we consider your application, including: reflection on your life's journey, description of personal qualities and experiences that would commend you for advanced studies at LSTC.

Financial Aid

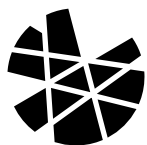

Financial aid is based primarily on merit. A limited number of advanced study scholarships and fellowships may be available for PhD students. Due to budgetary constraints, financial assistance is not generally available for ThM students.

Global Mission Scholarships are available to Lutheran international students seeking financial support. Applicants should apply through their national church to Ms. Tammy Jackson, Director for Leadership Development, Global Mission Unit, Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, 8765 West Higgins Road, Chicago, IL 60631, USA, (773) 380-2639, Tammy.Jackson@elca.org. Completed scholarship applications are due by October 15 for the following academic year.

Application Fee

All advanced studies applicants must pay a one-time application fee of $50. Fee may be paid through checks paid by bank draft, postal money order, or personal check written on a U.S. bank (payable to LSTC.)

The Lutheran School of Theology is accredited by the Commission on Accrediting of the Association of Theological Schools in the United States and Canada, and by the Higher Learning Commission of the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools. LSTC admits qualified students without regard to race, color, national and ethnic origin, age, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity, marital or veteran's status, physical ability, and social class.

Signature and Date

Please sign below indicating your assent to the following statements. Applications will not be processed without applicant's signature (e-signature is accepted).

- 1. I affirm that all the information supplied by me on this application and in supporting documents is true and complete to the best of my knowledge. I understand that misrepresentation may result in denial or revocation of my admission, or expulsion.
- 2. My signature also authorizes the seminary to complete a background check in compliance with federal regulations, if required.
- 3. I acknowledge that all documents and materials submitted for application become the property of the Lutheran School of Theology at Chicago and are not returnable to the applicant or forwarded to any third party.
- 4. I understand that all financial aid information submitted with this application and while I am at seminary is solely for awarding of grants available through the Lutheran School of Theology at Chicago, and only minimal information such as name, status as student and a very general overall "financial need" may be shared with the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA), my church, my synod and other outside scholarships I have applied for, for help in obtaining additional scholarship grants on my behalf.
