

DUAL DEGREES AT LSTC!

Requires a Bachelor's degree; admissions coordinated with UChicago

*Two Degrees. One Purpose.
Transformative Ministry and Social Impact.*

In partnership with the University of Chicago Crown Family School of Social Work, Policy, and Practice

Who is it for:

Students with a dual call — to pastoral or theological leadership and to clinical, community, or advocacy-based service

- ✓ Ideal for those pursuing ministry + social work, equine therapy, justice advocacy, or nonprofit leadership
- ✓ Combine theological formation with rigorous training in social work and community engagement
- ✓ Join a bold, interdisciplinary cohort making change on the ground

Program Features:

- ✓ Dual enrollment with LSTC and the University of Chicago
- ✓ Cross-crediting of up to 5 courses between institutions
- ✓ Joint approval of Clinical Pastoral Education (CPE) and field placements
- ✓ MDiv/AM completed in 5 years (instead of 6)
- ✓ MA/AM or MAM/AM completed in 3 years (instead of 4)

WHY LSTC + UCHICAGO:

Rooted in the Public Church approach — where ministry meets real-world needs

Access to two world-class institutions

Flexibility to integrate academic, spiritual, and vocational formation

Hundreds of cross-listed courses through the ACTS consortium

Study in the heart of Chicago's Hyde Park — a hub of theological and civic thought

"LSTC calls students into the world, putting our confessional faith into action. Here, I've engaged the global church through LWF and the Parliament of World Religions and served locally through Public Church Fellows and community organizing. In every experience, I've been challenged to witness the Gospel in action."
